St. Paul United Presbytery Meet In Lloydminster

The St. Paul United Presbytery of the United Church of Canada met in Grace United Church, Lloydminster, last week with the Chairman Rev. D. W. MacPherson of Wainwright conducting the sessions.

Opening worship was conducted by Miss Gladys Giffin, minister of Paradise Valley-Egerton. The theme "Being about Our Father's Business" was the basis of remarks for worship and for the Chairman's remarks. Mr. MacPherson reminded us that it doesn't take much of a man to be a Christian but it takes all of him.

One of the highlights of the session was the visit to Presbytery of Rev. Reid Vipond, Edmonton, President of Alberta Conference, who addressed a public meeting on Tuesday evening. A beautiful communion service was conducted by Rev. Smith of Lloydminster.

Dr. T. Hart, Edmonton, Supt. of Missions in Central and Northern Alberta for the United Church informed the court of a correction regarding reports of the Indian Work Commission at General Council in Windsor recently. The report speaks of the "excessive idleness" of Indians in some areas and not "excessive laziness" as reported in the newspapers.

Rev. Bob Christie, Secretary for Evangelism and Social Service for the United Church in British Columbia and Alberta, spoke on the National Evangelism Campaign in its third year in the United Church of Canada. He pointed out that personal witness is primary and it must concern witness to the living Christ and witness to faith. As a Christian, he said, we consider his life to Christ he becomes a new creature. In order to witness, prayer must be a reality in the life of every believer and if the National Evangelism movement is to be a success, laymen of the church must be willing to witness openly. If the blind are to see it will be by God's grace and our persistence.

Mr. Ken Fisher, Lloydminster, who attended conferences this past summer of men's clubs of the United Church in Banff and at Elgin House, Muskoka, Ont., urged that more AOTS Clubs be organized. Rev. R. R. Smith, Lloydminster, announced Dr. W. Sidney Gikhrst, medical missionary to Angola will speak in Vegreville, Thursday, October 25. Mr. Smith announced an advance in missionary savings but much more is needed to meet the needs of the church in Home and Overseas work.

Rev. T. Eskdale, Elk Point, formerly an outstanding organist in England, spoke on church music to the ministers while the lay delegates met. Mrs. Thornley of Ryley gave a report to the court of the lay meeting.

The afternoon devotions were led by Miss Janine Notley, WMS worker at Vilna. Her topic was Sacrifice and morning worship on Wednesday was conducted by Rev. T. Eskdale.

Attendance at Camp Whitney, the Presbytery camp increased 50 percent this past summer and the camp is in need of funds for further improvements. Schools for Elders in the United Church are to be conducted by Rev. H. H. Moats, Edmonton and will be held in Lloydminster, Sunday, November 4; Vegreville, Sunday, November 11; and Wainwright, Sunday, November 18, from 2:30 to 9 p.m. Registration for the schools is to be made with Rev. G. B. Mather, Vegreville.

A concise account of the two weeks General Council sessions in Windsor was given by Rev. C. W. MacKay, Vermilion.

The work of four summer mission field students was commended by Rev. W. Morgan, Ashmont, convener of Colleges and Students; Rev. Morris Johnston, Christian Education Secretary, for Alberta, told of film strips and resource material of various kinds.

Home Economist Newsnotes

HELLO HOMEMAKERS

Are you a taskmaster? Or did you find out that this garbled phrase means a breakfast do-dger?

It seems to me that farmers on the whole are pretty faithful about eating a good breakfast as far as quantity is concerned at any rate.

But how about you, Mrs. Homemaker and the children—particularly the teenage daughter?

Since breakfast should supply one-third of the daily food requirements it should be something more than a toast and coffee proposition. It seems a good time to work in our Vitamin C for the day with an orange, ½ grapefruit or juice of one or both. Don't forget to add protein—egg, peanut butter or cheese to the breakfast. And cereal is of great importance for its energy content. A little time in planning your breakfast, will prevent that late morning energy lag. Here's a sample menu of a good breakfast.

Orange juice
Whole wheat cereal and cream
Poached egg, Toast and butter.
Milk (for the children).
Tea or coffee (for you and dad)

That's just a sample. Vary your morning menus. Make them of foods your family likes.

But don't be a breakfast do-dger.

ATTENTION—Women's Clubs

I am at present planning my winter program. If your club wishes me to give a talk or demonstration send in your request early.

I have three subjects in the planning stage right now:
Care of Kitchen Knives
Eat a Better Breakfast.
Bazaar and Christmas Gift Ideas.

I will be planning talks on other subjects but those are the ones I am most interested in.

If your group would like a specific topic, just let me know and I'll try to arrange it.

Tip for the Week

Do you spread thread bits and material from one end of the room to the other when you sew? Here's a trick which will lessen the clutter. Fold over the top of a brown paper bag so it will stay open. Attach with scotch tape to the edge of your sewing machine or table. You have a handy disposal for thread and material bits.

Divorces in Canada numbered 2,068 in 1956, 7,683 in 1947, and 5,922 in 1954.

Wainwright Curling Club Opens Season

Monday, October 29 marks the earliest curling in this part of the country that we have ever witnessed. For on this day the new Artificial Ice Plant at the Wainwright Curling Club is open for play. A very promising season is on hand. One of the first events of interest will be the Atlas Cup Competitions which open as a round robin on the 4th. Teams from Viking, Kinross, Irma, Wainwright, Edmonton, North Edmonton, Browning, Dolcy, Roros, Ribstone and Chauvin have been invited to compete on a two team 14 end total point basis. The cup is at present held by the Ribstone Curling Club, who have put it on the block to stimulate interest in the event and to get a few early games in before the natural ice rises are ready. The club plans to follow this with a mixed bonspiel for the club members.

The directors announce that the Official Opening of the Club will be November 14 in the afternoon. Of interest to many in the area is the announcement that Matt Baldwin and his Brier rink will be playing in exhibition in the evening along with three other rinks invited from Edmonton to take part in the celebration. Rinks from all over this district have also been invited to attend the opening.

Anyone who wishes to get in a game or so at this time of year can rent ice at the club by phoning the rink, phone 666 Wainwright, and reserving same with caretaker Karl Barmendoo. His home phone number is 663 Wainwright. The rental for a sheet of ice for 2 hours is $8.00 per sheet.

Glen-Coa Cleanings

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. P. Nison accompanied by Mrs. S. Nison and Miss Bertha Fluevog drove to Camrose to attend the At Home Day at the Bethany Sunset Home. They report a pleasant time with a very large number of people present.

Sharon Ladies Aid was set over for a week because of the busy time. It will be at Mr. N. Fluevog's home on Nov. 4.

The Bible Conference at Sharon, held this week from Sunday through Thursday evening, was very well attended in view of the busy time. The Rev. C. R. Pearson of CLBI presented a series of challenging messages from the Book of Jeremiah.

The farmers are putting forth extra exertions this week to complete their harvest operations before the dire predictions of impending winter become a reality.

EASTERLY ECHOES

Congratulations to Master Robert Morse for obtaining the Governor General's award with his grade nine examinations.

Miss Mary Laycock was the recipient of a very nice bridal shower held at Paschendale school, Friday, October 19.

It's nice to see nearly all the harvesting completed around here with all the farmers hoping the weather will stay nice until the green feed and bales are stacked.

Most of the chicken pox victims are back at school once again.

Don't forget the Military Whist Drive at the Legion Hall Saturday, Nov. 3, sponsored by the Battle River W.I.

ATTENTION—boys and boys! Irma 4H Beef Club will be re-organized soon. Watch for date of first meeting some time near the last of October. Get your calves in before the first of November as no new members will be accepted after that date. Plans for the year's program will be made at the first meeting starting with a bus tour.

WITH THE District Agriculturist

By J. S. Duncan

Farm Labour

This fall has seen less help available than ever before. This office had only about one quarter of the number of men who usually go through here each fall. Farmers are going to have to face this situation for some time by the look of it. With this in mind they will have to examine their farm set up and see if they can get by without help. If not, they are probably going to have to fix up proper accommodation and get permanent help such as a married couple.

Egg Quality

The poultry flock will be coming into production now. Proper feeding and management will insure good production but part of the profit may be lost if eggs are not handled so as to insure high quality. Plenty of nest space is important, also sawdust or straw in the nest. Eggs should be gathered regularly, (several times a day) and soiled quickly. Any dirty eggs should be cleaned. If eggs are not taken to market every day the storage place should be cool and humidity kept high. Eggs should be marketed at least twice each week.

Seed Grain

Germination may be poor on much of this year's crop. Anyone with seed on hand from other years should hold it at least until it is sure that this year's grain will grow. This is also good time of year to get seed cleaned, particularly if you can haul to a Municipal Cleaning Plant. There is less rush now and it is easier to get a time for cleaning than it may be later. These roads are also more certain now than during the winter.

IRMA LEGION

The regular Armistice Service will be held in the Legion Hall on Sunday, November 11 at the time of 3 p.m. More details next week.

The Irma Legion will sponsor a dance on Monday, November 12. Watch for posters.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear husband and father, Joseph Alfred Fleming, called Home on November 4, 1951:

"Two loving hands are resting, The voice we loved is still. The one who worked so hard for us is watching 'o'er us still'."

—Always remembered by his loving wife and son and daughter-in-law and family.

IN MEMORIAM

Of a beloved husband and father, Robert Herbert, who passed away October 24, 1950:

"Rest in peace dear husband, It's sweet to breathe your name. In life I loved you dearly, In death I do the same. —Ever remembered and sadly missed by his loving wife and family."

CGIT Group Will Have Something Different For This Halloween

The CGIT plan a new Halloween. Instead of asking for the usual "shell out" on October 31 this year the Senior CGIT group plan to collect pennies, dimes, quarters and dollars under Canada's new UNICEF Halloween program. UNICEF is an abbreviation for United Nations Children's Fund. This money will be turned in the UNICEF Headquarters in Toronto and from there it will go to help thousands of underprivileged children from every corner of the world.

You will recognize our group by our CGIT uniforms and identity tags which depict our purpose.

Shell out for UNICEF and give this Halloween a new meaning. Your contributions can do so much.

Wedding Bells

LIKNESS — FORBES

An evening wedding of interest took place recently in Parkview Presbyterian church in a setting of dahlias and gladioli with colored ribbons and flowers as pew markers. United in marriage were Miss, daughter of Mrs. C. Forbes of Brock and the late Mr. J. Forbes of Netherhill, and Mr. Arthur Stanley Likness, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Likness of Fabyan.

To the strains of the wedding march, the bride entered the church on the arm of Mr. Robert Wright, who gave her in marriage. Rev. L. S. Van Massel performed the double ring ceremony. The bride wore a floor length gown of lace and net over satin with matching jacket, trimmed with pearls and sequins. Her waist-length veil fell from a tiny coronet with similar trim and she carried red roses and stephanotis.

Attending the bride were Mrs. B. Schell as matron of honor, in yellow lace over satin, and the bridesmaid Miss Pearl Gordon, in lime lace over satin. Each wore a headdress to match her frock and carried mixed carnations. Miss Lynn Warrens was flower girl, dressed in yellow, and her nosegay was a mixed floral bouquet. Master Donald Schell was ring bearer.

Attending the groom were Messrs. Simon Schell and Hugh Forbes, while ushers were Messrs. Tom Hyland and Eric Milla. Wedding music was played by Mr. R. Nickel and Mrs. Walter Crawford was vocalist.

The reception was held at the Barry Hotel where 75 guests signed the register presided over by Mrs. G. Brewster. White tapers in candelabra and gladioli bouquets complemented the tiered wedding cake on the head table. Congratulatory wishes were extended by Mrs. L. Muller and Mr. T. Hyland. For travelling to Banff and Lake Louise the bride and groom wore twin suits of navy and the bride's accessories were white with carnation corsage. Upon their return they will reside in Saskatoon.

And He said to them, all, if any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it. For what is a man advantaged if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away?

For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's and of the holy angels.

Canada's Biggest Tidewater Terminal Owned By Alberta Farmers

The Alberta Wheat Pool's 7,300,000 bushel terminal at Vancouver is shown in the photo above. The new 2,150,000 bushel addition, on the right hand side of the picture, was officially opened by Rt. Hon. C. D. Howe, minister of Trade and Commerce, on Friday, October 19.

This new addition is the first major terminal construction on the West Coast in 25 years. It is significant that it was carried out by Alberta farmers themselves, who in the past few years have been hampered by almost continuous elevator congestion.

Again the Alberta Wheat Pool has demonstrated its value as a self-help organization of farm people.

Men Who Make Alberta

THE OFFICE WORKER

In recent years, probably no one has suffered more from a lack of recognition than has the so-called "white collar" worker. While tradesmen, salesmen and management frequently share the limelight, the office staff are more than often ignored. Yet, what would business be without these men and women. Who would enjoy working for a company without a payroll? How could management operate without records? How long could the tradesmen produce if new materials were not ordered?

In every industry the men and women behind the desk do the detail work of administration and record keeping so necessary to our complex twentieth century economy.

Without these people the trains would not run on time — buildings would never get built — mass production of the necessities of today's life would be impossible.

Yes, we all owe a debt to industry's "men behind the man behind the machine".

PEOPLE ARE OUR GREATEST NATURAL RESOURCE

News Report From Edmonton

By Ken Mason

EDMONTON — Premier Manning entertained members of the press and radio in his spacious, mahogany panelled office last week, at the first of a new series of weekly news conferences.

The biggest story of the day was his announcement that Alberta is ready to sign a new 5-year tax rental agreement with the federal government, under which the dominion will continue to collect personal income and corporation taxes and succession duties, and kick back a percentage to the province.

Final arrangements will have to be worked out before March 31, when the existing agreement expires, but there is plenty of time because only a few minor technical details remain to be ironed out.

However, the premier at the same time made it clear his government is by no means overjoyed with the take-it-or-leave-it tax sharing plan the senior government offered after a long series of negotiations earlier this year. In his letter to Finance Minister Harris setting out the province's willingness to join, Premier Manning asked that continuing studies be made to find a lasting and "more realistic" solution to federal-provincial revenue problems.

Provinces which take part in the new plan will be given equalization payments. They are designed to bring the per capita tax revenue in the less wealthy provinces to the level of Ontario and B.C., the two richest provinces.

It means Alberta will receive approximately $33,000,000 in the coming fiscal year, compared with $34,500,000 under the existing agreement during the last fiscal year.

The premier said Alberta decided to enter the scheme because there isn't time to give the matter further study and come up with a better alternative before April. The only alternative now would be to stay out of the scheme, and if that happened Albertans would be paying provincial as well as federal income taxes. The government doesn't want that any more than the taxpayers do.

The consensus among newsmen was that Mr. Manning's first press conference was a good one, and the idea of making it a weekly event went over well. It's been quite a few years since the premier held regular news conferences, and as a result he isn't acquainted with many of the city's newsmen, and vice versa.

It didn't come from Premier Manning's press conference, but another big story leaked out last week. It concerns the Alberta government's proposed plan to launch a province-wide hospital treatment program. It is expected to start next April, and every resident of the province will be covered.

The plan likely will be a sort of revision of the present provincial-municipal hospital program, the major difference being that everyone will be covered — not ratepayers will no longer have to buy contracts.

According to the word from a convention of hospital administrators in the city last week, the plan will be an interim measure until the federal government is ready to launch the nation-wide hospital program it offered to the provinces almost a year ago.

It is expected the municipalities will pay an assessment of three mills to the province for operating costs, until the federal government comes into the picture. The patient would continue to pay $1.50 to $2 per day. The plan would provide standard ward care and diagnostic and treatment services, and will cost the taxpayers about $20,000,000 a year.

The proposed federal-provincial hospital program will provide the same thing, but it is being stalled while most of the other Canadian provinces decide whether they want to get into it.

Ottawa has stipulated that the plan must be endorsed by at least six provinces representing a majority of the Canadian population. This means either Ontario or Quebec must be one of the six. They haven't shown any inclination to rush in, and at present only B.C., Alberta and Saskatchewan — three provinces which already have some hospital program—have agreed to join.

Now Alberta has decided not to wait for the rest of Canada. Although a final decision has been made, it appears fairly certain that this province will have a new health scheme within the near future.

As we said earlier, the story didn't come from Premier Manning's press conference. He was asked at the conference what progress had been made on the federal-provincial hospital scheme. He reported things were at a standstill, but didn't mention the proposed Alberta scheme. And the very same day someone at the hospital convention was spreading the word all over the place. Oh well.

On Tuesday night four places of business at Irma were broken into and robbed. These business firms were Imperial Lumber, Huthison and Co. office, Central Garage and Pendleton's Garage. The thieves seemed to be more interested in obtaining cash than merchandise and fortunately they picked the day after "bank day" to make their grab so didn't get away with much money. Two tires were missing from Central Garage, but otherwise we have not heard of other goods reported missing.

Visiting at Irma on Sunday last week were Mrs. L. H. Ekin and Mrs. Hugh Doherty of Manville.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Moore, the former Evelyn McRoberts, and daughters from Tofted visited at Irma on Sunday with Mrs. A. R. McRoberts. It was the occasion of Mr. and Mrs. Moore's seventh wedding anniversary.
